2004 ISRAEL BONDS DINNER

Greenberg touched by tribute

This year's Israel Bonds dinner honored Curve owner Chuck Greenberg. The May 16 event drew 150 to the Lakemont Casino, including Greenberg's entire family.

Greenberg was touched by the honor and said he and his family have been "overwhelmed" by the support they've received in Altoona.

Hollander chaired the event, on behalf of Israel Bonds, which was represented by Western Pennsylvania coordinator Harold Marcus.

SUMMER BARBEQUE Thalers to host on Aug. 29

The third annual Federation summer barbeque will be held at the home of Bruce and Phyllis Thaler on Sunday, Aug. 29.

"This has become one of the popular events of the year, and we appreciate the Thalers' hospitality," Federation executive director Bill Wallen said.

The event, once again catered by the Casino at Lakemont, will be held between 3-7 p.m. Bring your bathing suits. A cannonball contest will be held at 4.

To RSVP, call the Federation office at 940-6001.

The 2004 campaign is under way. Please give generously. See page 11.

350th anniversary

September marks the official celebration of 350 years of Jewish presence in America. Thanks to Joe Silverman, we are invited to the grand opening of the exhibit at the Library of Congress to commemorate the anniversary. We will have the opportunity to meet Dr. James Billington, Librarian of Congress. We may want to talk to him about his new book, Russia in Search of Itself. We have a copy in the office and it can be purchased through The Book Store. There are still a few seats available on the bus for our trip on Thursday September 9.

Call the office at 940-6001 if you want to join us for a very special day.

In the news

B'nai B'rith members and BBYO'ers should check out the July/August issue of their newsletter – B'nai B'rith Today. They have reprinted Jay Silverblatt's story – "After 30 years, Memories and Friendships endure." It just appeared in our last issue of L'Chaim.

Meisel visit

Holocaust survivor, civil rights activist and educator Judy Meisel visited our community this spring and spoke to over 2500 people in junior and senior highs, universities, church and civic groups.

An award winning film documentary about her life – "Tak for Alt, survival of a human spirit" – was shown and Judy spoke about her life and experiences.

Judy Meisel speaks to thousands of students annually throughout the United States. She is also featured at national conferences in Holocaust education.

We are most fortunate to have her visit our area. She will return in October and will lead the annual teacher training day for our Celebrate Diversity Program. She will speak at Penn State Altoona and at University Park and other local universities.

BLAIR COUNTY SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Goldberg enshrined

Martin Goldberg was inducted into the Blair County Sports Hall of Fame on April 17.

A former professional tennis player, Goldberg marks the fourth Jewish athlete from Altoona to be honored by the local Hall of Fame, which has now inducted 60 athletes in 11 banquets.

The others were Babe Patt (football), Jeff Neuman (basketball) and Dave Stoop (boxing). Patt was inducted posthumously.

Goldberg played No. 1 for Altoona Area High School as a freshman and sophomore before transferring to Lawrenceville (N.J.) Prep. When it was time to pick a college, Goldberg chose Williams (Mass.), where he became the nation's first All-American in tennis and squash.

squash championship following a three-year run on the European satellite pro circuit.

He also won a 35-and-over title at the Maccabiah Games, Olympics for Jewish athletes.

Goldberg devoted a portion of his Hall of Fame acceptance speech paying tribute to his late mother, Marilyn, a fixture in the local Jewish community.

"My mother just loved it in Altoona," he said. "She was very active in the community, and I can't say enough about what a terrific mother and person she was. I had a wonderful support group with both my parents."

Goldberg's father, Allen, currently resides in the Washington, D.C. area. He is a past president of the Altoona Jewish Federation.

L' CHAIM PROFILE

Primacks make Altoona their home

Name: Larry and Terri Primack.

Address: Hickory Hill, Hollidaysburg.

Family: Daughter Michele, is a third-year law student at Duquesne University; son Alex enters the seventh grade at the Hollidaysburg Area Junior High School.

High school: Larry graduated from Newburgh Free Academy, Newburgh, N.Y., class of 1971. Terri graduated Pope Paul VI in Haddonfield, N.J., class of '71.

College: Larry graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N.Y., class of '75, and Albany Medical College, Albany, N.Y., class of '79. Terri attended Wesley College and earned an associate's degree in nursing, class of '71, and she earned a BSN from Penn State, class of '92.

Hobbies: Larry enjoys coaching youth sports, playing tennis, golf, skiing and gardening. Terri loves to play tennis and golf and enjoys gardening and painting in water colors and faux painting. She also helps tutor young students at Frankstown Elementary.

Congregation: Temple Beth Israel.

We've been contributors to the Federation campaign since: 1985, when we arrived in Altoona.

We've been to Israel: Larry was a term abroad for three months in 1974. He stayed on a Kibbutz named Geshet Hasiv. He worked and studied there, and when we got there, it was right after the '73 war. He recalls "harvesting bananas and citrus fruits. We traveled all over. It was such a wonderful, positive experience. I learned to love falafel."

First memories of being Jewish include: At Larry's great-grandmother's bungalow colony in the Catskills, which was a typical Jewish crowd, and going to Synagogue there. He attended Hebrew School in West Haven, Conn.

Our strongest Jewish influence at an early age was: Doing the Passover seders.

The leaders in the Altoona Jewish community when we first came here were: Gary Klein was the Rabbi at the Temple. Maggie Kaufman was the president at that time. We had just moved into our home on Ridge Avenue in the beginning of September, and were unloading our plants from a U-Haul and Gary drove up and asked us if we wanted to come to his home for Erev Rosh Hashanah.

Past positions held: Larry served as president of the Temple from 2001-04, and is a past member of the board of the JMC. Terri is a past PTO president at Frankstown.

In our Jewish community, we are most proud: How much emphasis and teaching is put on the involvement of the kids. The rabbis spend a lot of time with the children and all the volunteers putting in the time to teach Hebrew and Sunday School and all the activities help make the children feel involved. And we really like all the support the kids give each other – when they conduct services, when they have a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, and just everything that helps set a higher bar. Larry is also proud to report that he started the Brain Bowl, a competition involving elementary school students at Frankstown Elementary.

Our vision (hope) for our Jewish community includes: Increased attendance and participation among everybody in both congregations and continued cooperation between the two congregations and the entire Jewish community.

There is a lovely and meaningful way to celebrate a simcha, honor a loved one's memory or send heartfelt wishes for a speedy recovery — a generous gift to the Greater Altoona Jewish Federation or one of our special friends.

SENIOR PROFILE

Granddaughter Sierra sometimes attends meetings with Marilyn.

Marilyn Muhlfelder

Congregation: Temple Beth Israel.

Hometown: Altoona.

Family: Daughter and son-in-law Adriene and Doug Yingling, stepson and wife Dr. Thomas and Barbara Muhlfelder, stepson David Muhlfelder, grandchildren – Todd and Andrea Muhlfelder, Damien Cordero and Sierra Yingling.

I've been part of the Altoona Jewish community since: 1979 and I converted to Judaism in 1981.

Past activities/ responsibilities in the Jewish community: Sisterhood president and vice president of the Temple board.

Best piece of advice I ever received (and from whom): After much thought, I have come to the conclusion that I was never amenable to receiving advice. I believe strongly that actions speak louder than words. Over my many years, I have been exposed to many wonderful people whose attributes and actions I have tried to emulate. My husband, Warren, was my greatest mentor. He taught me so much about life and, of course, he was the one who introduced me to Judaism.

My advice to others is: Be yourself but be open to the gifts of others and keep active doing good works for others.

What I like best about being part of the Altoona Jewish community: Being a part of the Jewish community has been a most rewarding aspect of my life. To be involved in the Jewish organizations and the people involved that strive to make this a better world has helped me to be a better person. Our people really live by the tenets of Judaism.

L'CHAIM NOTEBOOK

Port, Dembert honored

■ Both are among AAHS's distinguished alumni.

The Altoona Area High School Alumni Association has announced the winners of its Distinguished Alumni Awards that will be presented Oct. 1-2.

The awards were established in 2000 to honor graduates who have achieved greatness in their chosen fields and through public service. Recipients are:

Dr. Mark L. Dembert, a graduate of the class of 1967 who lives in Norfolk, VA. He is the district director for the Western Tidewater Health District for the Virginia Department of Health. Dembert retired as a Captain in the U.S. Navy Medical Corps in 2002. During his 27-year Navy career, he distinguished himself in the fields of diving and submarine medicine, preventative medicine and psychiatry.

Dembert

Neil Port, a 1957 graduate who resides in Hollidaysburg. He is assisting small entrepreneurs through Neil Port and Associates, LLC. He helped develop two small businesses into national prominence – Sky Brothers Food Distributor and Delta Health Systems. Port has been active in many community organizations and has been involved in countless philanthropic activities.

Port

An awards dinner will be held Oct. 2 in the Soho Room at the Casino at Lakemont Park. Tickets are $30 and can be purchased in the Alumni Office of Altoona Area High School. The Distinguished Alumni Awards are presented every two years.

Pechter featured

Penn State Altoona recently honored Shirley as one of the Women in Philanthropy who have made a commitment to the students at our local campus and are helping to make their dreams come true. CEO Dr. William Cole thanked Shirley for her support of a musical recital hall in the new academic building soon to open on the campus in the most recent edition of Ivy Leaf, The Penn State Altoona Magazine. The article calls her a "community treasure" who has devoted her life to making life better in her community. Shirley said, "I enjoy being involved in the community. I love people. I thank God for every day that I'm able to be involved. What you give comes back. If your heart says, 'this is something I should do,' then do it."

Pechter

Jubelirers to visit Israel

The Jubelirers will participate in a mission to Israel in August with other Senators and their families and staff. Senator Jubelirer met with Israel Consul General, Giora Becher, and first suggested a mission to Israel for members of the State Senate. The Senator, who has never traveled to Israel before, is extremely interested in learning more about the country and its people. At the request of the Senator and the Consul General, the Pennsylvania Jewish Coalition organized the mission. PJC Director Joel Weisberg said "it is important that government officials see for themselves what is happening in the State of Israel. We can learn more about how officials there implement important security safeguards. We can improve trade relations between Pennsylvania and Israel and can further improve that already good relationship between our State Senate and the Pennsylvania Jewish community."

Bob and Renee Jubelirer

Renee has traveled to Israel twice, including spending her junior year in college at the University of Haifa. Her son, Michael, will also be in Israel this summer for a month with a BBYO group from Allentown. Renee said she has loved times in Israel and looks forward to sharing this experience with Bob.

TRIBUTE

We remember them

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now part of us, as we remember them

(Editor's note: Leslie (Bailinger) Mosher, daughter of Jordan and Mitzi, was tragically killed in an automobile accident on May 25 in Atlanta. Leslie grew up in Altoona and graduated from Altoona High School in 1973. The following tribute obituary was written by close friends Terri Goldberg, Judi Sevel and Cinda Rosenberg).

We were very close friends of Leslie Bailinger during the 1960s and early 1970s when we were in Junior High and High School in Altoona. All of us were very active in the Allegheny Mountain Council of the B'nai Brith Youth Organization (BBYO) and provided leadership in the local BBG group. We also attended Sunday School and public school with Leslie. So we feel a great deal of sadness as we mark her recent, tragic passing with these words and memories.

Leslie was an extraordinary person. She was full of fun and laughter. We always wanted Leslie to attend parties and the BBYO conventions because they were a lot more fun when she was there. She was a loyal friend and reached out and included everyone in our events and activities. She made everyone feel welcome and part of whatever we were organizing or trying to do.

In spite of various health challenges, Leslie was always positive and upbeat. She never complained, and she always looked terrific. She took great care of herself, and many of us envied her great looks and attractiveness.

We remember having so much fun with Leslie at her home in Altoona, either having parties or just hanging out in her basement. Her parents were always excited to have Leslie's friends in their home and made us feel comfortable and welcome.

Leslie loved children and always wanted to have a family. She was so happy when she met her husband, Bob, and settled in Atlanta where she made a wonderful life for herself and had her son, Marshall. She became a great elementary school teacher as teaching young people had been her passion and desire even when we were together in high school. And she was able to realize that dream for herself.

We will always remember our good friend Leslie and we'll think of her often.

This past September, Leslie (right) celebrated her son Marshall's Bar Mitzvah with parents Jordan and Mitzi and husband Bob in Atlanta.

LOCAL OBITUARIES

Nevin Nederlander, 78, died on April 6, following a courageous battle with Diabetes. Nev or Nook was a W.W.II veteran who was well known for his community service. He was Altoona's "Mister Parade" and was a great supporter of athletic and social events in the Jewish and general community. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Esther (Thaler) and daughters Sandy and Rene and their families.

David Brozgal, 80, died on March 20. "Danny" was a junior accountant and worked in retail sales for many years. He was a Sergeant in W.W.II and was a very active volunteer in Veterans organizations since then-including placing flags at the Jewish cemeteries annually. He cofounded the Central PA Ostomy Society in 1972 and was its program chair for over 40 years. Danny was honored as the Humanitarian of the Year by the Blair Bedford Labor Council for his outstanding volunteer service to many community organizations. Danny and his wife June (Diehl) were married for 33 years.

Judy Rosenthal, 51, died on Feb. 25. She was a native of Long Island, N.Y. who lived in Clearfield with her family since 1987. Judy worked as a professional social worker who practiced, taught and volunteered in mental health services for children and adults in various programs. She was a devoted wife to husband Shelly and mother to sons Jonathan, Ricky and Scott.

Mollie Evin, 94, died on Jan. 9. Mollie taught for 42 years in the Altoona District, mostly as a 9th grade algebra teacher at Kieth Junior High. She was an early role model for many as a professional woman. She traveled widely after retirement and was active in Hadassah, Sisterhood and retired teachers organizations. Mollie was a devoted daughter, sister and friend. She is survived by her friends, community family and thousands of her former students.

2004 CAMPAIGN REPORT

Where your pledges go

We are about to begin our campaign. Please give generously when you are contacted by mail, telephone or in person. Your contribution saves Jewish lives throughout the world and enhances Jewish life in our community.

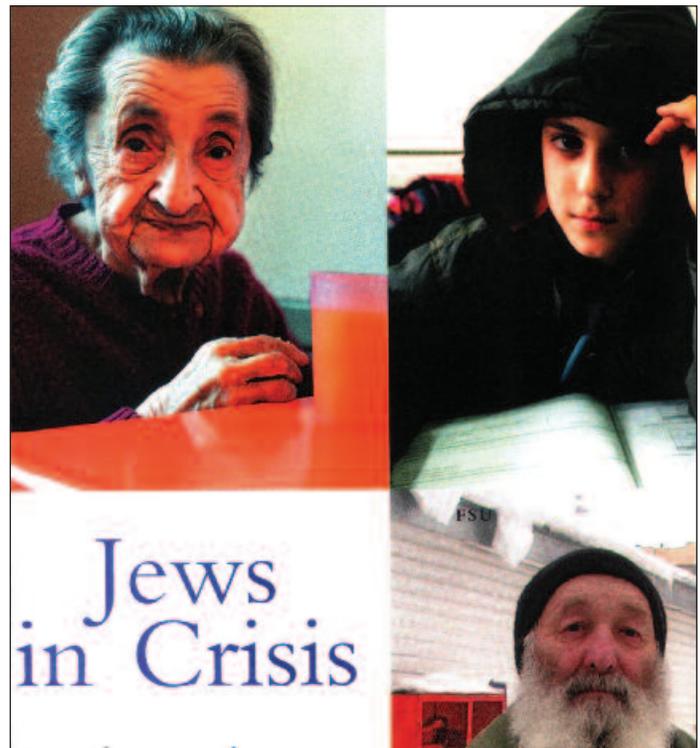

Some of the very special programs we support are through The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), which this year celebrates its 90th anniversary of helping Jews in distress throughout the world.

We designate the funds for the JDC in Argentina and the Former Soviet Union. In Argentina when almost all of the middle class was in financial ruin JDC and the Federations responded immediately and generously.

In less than two years, we established a network of care and feeding programs throughout Argentina that today: provides vital food, medical, and housing assistance to over 34,500 impoverished Jews in our welfare caseload; ensures proper nutrition for 2,000 children through an Emergency School Lunch Program; supplies 10,000 elderly Jews with a basket of welfare services distributes an average of 15,000 medical prescriptions each month; runs community-wide seders and other special holiday meals for up to 15,000 suddenly impoverished Jews.

In the Former Soviet Union, JDC continues to care for 240,000 Jewish elderly through the network of 174 Hesed welfare centers. Of the total number being helped, 125,000 are Nazi victims who receive financial support through the Claims Conference, the Swiss Banks Settlement, and other Holocaust Restitution funding sources. The remaining 115,000 are Jewish elderly that rely on funds primarily through the American Federation system and Foundations for support.

JDC also lays the foundation for Jewish renewal through enabling Jews to regain knowledge, resources, and skills of Jewish Communal life. Through our new Children's initiative, JDC is working to respond to the suffering and poverty among the youngest Jews in the Former Soviet Union.
